I understand that Teen Week will be held July 14-19, 2019.

I understand that even if I am awarded a scholarship, I am responsible for paying $100 ($25 processing and $75 materials fees) to participate in this program. Transportation costs are also my responsibility. Fees for tuition, room and board are underwritten from the generous support of foundations. (Please note that if the $100 fee is a hardship, there may be additional funding available.)

I understand that even if I'm awarded a scholarship, I may not be granted my first or even second choice workshop. Workshops are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis with priority given to students who have not participated in the program previously. Furthermore, lodging, roommate, and workshop requests cannot be guaranteed.
