Touchstone scholarships provide opportunities for many deserving students of all skill levels, ages, and backgrounds to attend workshops each year. While financial need is often a factor in allocating these funds, Touchstone is also dedicated to ensuring that artistic merit and intensity of interest are seriously considered. Incomplete application packages will NOT be reviewed. Applicants of scholarships will be notified via email of their award or denial. If applicable, you may apply for multiple scholarships with one complete application. Scholarships are only valid for the year in which they are awarded; students who are unable to attend their chosen/awarded workshop will forfeit their scholarship.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Please provide the following along with your application:

- 1) Please answer the following:
  - a. Why are you interested in attending Touchstone?
  - b. What do you hope to gain from participating in this workshop?
  - c. Tell us about your interest in craft.
- 2) Optional but Highly Recommended:
  - a. Resume/Bio including awards, recognitions, and certifications (optional but highly recommended. REQUIRED for Architecture and the Integrity of Craft Scholarship)
  - b. Any additional information that you think will help us determine a financial need.
  - c. Letters of Recommendation with contact information included (limit – 3)
  - d. Work Samples (limit – 5) as jpg files (300dpi)

TOUCHSTONE SCHOLARSHIPS:

(expanded descriptions are available on our website touchstonecrafts.org)

Please consider me for the following scholarship(s):

Touchstone General Scholarship (Due March 15)

This scholarship provides 50% - 100% tuition for any adult-level workshop.

Robert Little Scholarship (Due March 15)

This scholarship provides 50% - 100% tuition for any adult-level nature-themed workshop.

The Susan M. Brimo-Cox Memorial Scholarship (Due March 15)

This scholarship provides up to $500 towards any adult-level workshop's tuition, room, and board. Scholarship recipients will be required to donate one small object from their workshop to help document the impact of the Susan Brimo-Cox family's commemorative contribution made in her honor.

Architecture and the Integrity of Craft Scholarship (Due March 15)

This scholarship provides up to $1,200 towards any adult-level workshop's tuition, room, and board. Recipients must reside on campus and take part in the full meal plan during their workshop. Eligible candidates include any student who has completed at least 2 years in an NCARB accredited architectural program or a recent graduate of an NCARB accredited program who is 30yrs old or younger.

Fayette County Educator Retreat Scholarship (Due March 15)
